What is this program, and why do we have it?
The Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation program promotes our mission to enhance the lives of veterans, military and their families.

What can you do?

1. Provide opportunities for Auxiliary members to serve veterans and their families as volunteers at VA health care facilities through the VA Voluntary Service (VAVS).

Ideas:

Members
- Become a regular VAVS volunteer.
- Invite others to become VAVS volunteers with you.
- Enter all of your VAVS hours into the VAVS tracking system. Note: VA Healthcare facilities volunteer hour tracking system is different from the tracking utilized for ALA hour bars. Please consult your department.

Department (and ALA VAVS Representatives and Deputy Representatives)
- Work with VAVS directors to create meaningful assignments for every volunteer.
- Work with VAVS directors to identify service projects suitable for Junior members and their friends and adults with time for occasional service only.
- Educate units and community partners about volunteer opportunities available at VA medical centers, state veterans homes, Fisher Houses, and other VA health care locations. Sponsor informational programs and recruitment tables at department meetings, post and unit functions and at community events. Utilize department websites, newsletters and other media.
- Contribute to the VAVS National Advisory Committee by enabling the American Legion Auxiliary national representative to best represent the interest of and exert influence on behalf of the American Legion Auxiliary. Develop a deeper connection with the VAVS national representative and deputy representative.
- Attend the 71st annual VA Voluntary Service National Advisory Committee Meeting and Conference. All VA facility representatives, deputies and volunteers are eligible to attend at their own expense.
- Share member volunteer concerns and suggestions with ALA National VAVS Representative Pat Kranzow (contact information can be found on previous page).
- Inform your Auxiliary hospital VAVS representative of any concerns or suggestions.

(Note: Volunteers in veterans’ state homes that have a Memorandum of Understanding with a VA health care system are eligible to be considered VAVS volunteers.)

2. There isn’t a VA hospital close to your community? Find opportunities for Auxiliary members to serve veterans in your area. These hours will count toward your Service to Veterans pin and hour bars.

Service to Veterans
Service to Veterans recognizes volunteers who provide service to veterans, servicemembers and their families outside a VAMC. Volunteers conduct projects and work for military/veterans and/or families from their homes and in their communities. Service to Veterans volunteers maintain their own recordkeeping and dollars spent. A new pin has been designed to reflect the work of those who volunteer in their communities and at home for veterans. Hour bars, which attach to the pin, are also available to earn. More information may be in the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation: A Guide for Volunteers available online for download at www.alafortveterans.org. To purchase a printed copy, please visit www.emblem.legion.org.

Ideas:

- Compile and record hours provided by your members.
- Coordinate with your PR chairman to tell the community what work your unit members are doing for veterans.

Department
- Inform units about the new service category, Service to Veterans.
- Distribute information to units and members to help them understand the opportunities to volunteer through ALA’s recently combined category, Service to Veterans, and how to report such service hours.
- Promote volunteer opportunities available in community settings or from home to unit and individual members. Sponsor informational programs and recruitment tables at department meetings, post and unit functions and at community events. Utilize department websites, newsletters and other media.
- Encourage units and individual members to participate in the Quilts of Valor project through the Quilts of Valor Foundation: www.qovf.org.

3. Assist veterans in accessing VA benefits including, but not limited to, health care. This should include coordinating with the local American Legion Post Service Officer.
Ideas:

Ideas:

Members and Units

- Give a helping hand to the Legion's homeless veteran coordinator in your department and offer to assist that coordinator in responding to requests for assistance from homeless veterans or homeless veteran service providers.
- Crochet hats, scarves or mittens to be distributed to homeless veterans. Use information provided by your department chairman to contact the homeless veteran coordinator at the VA health care system nearest you to explore what the unit or you can do to help homeless veterans in your community.
- Participate in the VA Project CHALENG organized by the VA health care system nearest to you. (Project CHALENG for Veterans enhances the care for homeless veterans provided by your local VA and its surrounding community service agencies.)
- Contact your local post chairman and offer your assistance if requests for help come through the Legion’s Family Support Network (FSN).
- Raise funds for local American Legion posts to help veterans and their families through the Family Support Network for veterans at risk of losing their housing or homeless veterans transitioning to permanent housing.
  - Make payments of overdue rent, utility payments or deposits and security deposits.
- Host or volunteer at homeless veterans’ stand downs, events where homeless veterans receive free goods and services such as haircuts and medical exams.

- Identify The American Legion’s homeless veteran coordinator in your department and prepare a resources bulletin for units.
- Contact the homeless veteran coordinator at the VA health care system located in your state to explore what the unit or individual member can do to help homeless veterans in their community. Distribute information to units and members within the department.
- Coordinate and encourage participation in the following programs:

  - Stand Downs
  - VA sponsored events

5. Support rehabilitation and healing of veterans through arts, crafts and hobbies.

National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF)

NVCAF is the national, annual competition and festival that recognizes the progress and recovery made through recreation therapy and raises the visibility of the creative achievements of our nation’s veterans after disease, disability or life crisis. As the national presenting sponsor, the American Legion Auxiliary should strive to increase monetary support by encouraging departments to sponsor fundraisers that will contribute to the increased awareness and support of this program.

Ideas:

Members/Units

- Obtain and become familiar with the 2014 edition of ALA Guide for Volunteers.
- Help your unit and department earn recognition at National Convention through donations to support VA Creative Arts Festivals. Volunteer individually, with a fellow member, or as a unit at a local Creative Arts Festival.
- Identify arts, crafts and hobby projects targeted to veterans (such as writing, oral history recording, visual and performing arts, quilting and gardening). A unit may organize a project of its own or introduce a unit to veteran arts, crafts and hobby projects already operational in the community. See Arts Deployed: Action Guide and Webinars to help you bring the arts to your community.

www.alaforveterans.org/Programs/Veterans-Affairs---Rehabilitation/

Department

• Promote member awareness of the Auxiliary’s vital role as the presenting sponsor of the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF).

ALA National Headquarters submits qualifying donations to NVCAF staff each July. Donations considered are those received in the national office from August 1, 2016, to July 31, 2017.

• Recruit members to volunteer at local Veterans Creative Arts Festivals conducted by many VA health care systems across the country.

HOW TO RAISE AWARENESS ABOUT THE EVER-INCREASING NUMBER OF HOMELESS VETERANS

Committee:
Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

Contact Information for Questions:
VA&R@ALAforgenVeterans.org

Raise awareness in your communities about the ever-increasing number of homeless veterans, especially women veterans and those with children.

Background information:
• The National Coalition for Homeless Veterans states that homeless veterans are mostly males, but about 8% are females. Most are single and many may suffer from mental illness, alcohol and/or substance abuse. About 12,700 veterans of the recent conflicts were homeless in 2014 and the number of younger homeless veterans is increasing. 77% of homeless female veterans are unemployed. Your unit can get involved in several ways. We hope to supply you with ideas that will help you participate in the fight against homelessness and its impact on veterans.

Step-by-Step Instructions:
• First, learn about the homeless veterans in your area. Identify the needs of the homeless veteran population in your area by contacting community organizations like shelters, food banks, and if available, a Veterans Administration Medical Center (VAMC).
• If you have a VAMC in your area, work with the VAMC homeless coordinator to see what kinds of programs they already have in place and identify how your unit can help.
• Use funds collected through the Poppy program to support the needs of homeless veterans.
• Advertise the Department of Veterans Affairs help line for homeless veterans in homeless shelters, community centers, VAMC’s, CBOCs, local hospitals, mental health service facilities and other community centers in your area. The hotline, 1-800-4AID-VET or 1-877-424-3838 is a free, confidential hotline that pairs homeless veterans and their families with trained counselors who are able to refer veterans to services in their area. Posters are available at no cost on www.ALAforVeterans.org. Also visit www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/Veterans/Default.aspx.
• Get the word out! As a unit or member, contact your local and state representatives in person, by mail, phone or email. Ask them to keep veteran legislation on their agendas.
• The Department of Veterans Affairs also has founded a national suicide prevention hotline to ensure veterans in emotional crisis have free 24/7 access to trained counselors. Ask the local homeless shelter, hospital, schools, community centers, mental health services facilities and other public places to post the free flyer or hand out free brochures. Visit www.suicidepreventionlifeline.org/Veterans/Default.aspx.

Three projects your unit might consider:

Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation
• Host a stand down or Homeless Veterans’ health fair. Contact your local VAMC homeless outreach coordinator or visit the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans website www.nchm.com. They have a simple guide to follow called, Stand Down Guide.

• Assemble Buddy Baskets for homeless veterans transitioning into housing. Visit www.ALAforVeterans.org for a How To Sheet that further details the Buddy Basket process.

• Work with your Legion Family to develop a fundraising plan. These funds can be used for emergency housing, supporting local shelters, and supplying veterans with basic needs. Contact local businesses, churches, and civic groups, for item and monetary donations. Ask to receive a portion of the proceeds raised at a community event. For example ask an organization to sponsor a 5k run/walk on behalf of homeless veterans. Involve media to ensure donors are recognized for their support of America’s veterans.
HOW TO INCREASE DONATIONS TO THE NATIONAL VETERANS CREATIVE ARTS FESTIVAL

Committee:
Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

Contact Information for Questions:
va&r@alaforveterans.org

Objective:
#3 Support rehabilitation of veterans through art therapy by fulfilling the Auxiliary’s annual financial obligation as a presenting co-sponsor of the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival (NVCAF).

Step-by-Step Instructions:

- Check with your department VA&R chairman to see what your unit goal is, and develop a plan to meet that goal.

- Once you have your goal, share it with your unit and keep them informed about your fundraising progress.

- Here are some ideas to help you develop your plan and achieve your goals. Brainstorm with your unit to come up with ideas that will work for your members:
  - Order your donation cans from National Headquarters today! This year, we are introducing donation cans to help your unit raise funds for NVCAF. A limited number of cans will be available, so check with your department VA&R chairman about details on how to order. Decorative wraps for cans will be available from National Headquarters or online for free at www.ALAforVeterans.org. The cans will be decorated with information about NVCAF and pictures from the event. You can place one or more cans in your Post home and make them available at each meeting. Ask banks, local retailers and many more places for spots to display our NVCAF contribution cans. Just use your imagination. It will be a great way for your Unit to reach your fundraising goal for NVCAF. More information will follow; watch for content posted in bulletins and on the website.
  - At each of your unit meetings, have a penny parade. Set an overall goal of how much you want to raise at each meeting that will help you make that overall goal.
  - A no-bake sale is an easy way to help reach your unit’s fundraising goal. Assign a committee to select a date for your no-bake sale. Your invitation should include information about NVCAF. Have the committee send an invitation to the members of your unit and post. After your sale, be sure to let your unit and post know how much money was raised for NVCAF.

- Assign a small committee to ask local businesses for in-kind donations for a special NVCAF raffle. With the items collected, you can create special baskets to raffle. Don’t forget to ask your friends and family to purchase raffle tickets. Take the February 2013 issue of the Auxiliary magazine. Take the attached fact sheet with you to help explain the festival. When you visit local businesses, be sure your committee is well informed. For additional information visit www.creativeartsfestival.va.gov/.
• Hold your raffle at a special fundraising dinner for NVCAF. Invite the local business leaders who contributed and community leaders to the event (mayor, police and fire chief, Chamber of Commerce plus the others who are important in your community).

• If you have a veterans hospital or veterans home in your area, check with your hospital or home representative to see if they have local Creative Arts program. Check to see if they have any medal winners (gold, silver and bronze). If they do, invite the participants to your fundraiser and ask them to bring their art and talent. You might ask if they are willing to donate a piece of art for your fundraiser. Perhaps the performing arts medal winners would provide entertainment. If you don’t have access to a Creative Arts artist, you can access a list of artists to see if any are in your area: http://www.va.gov/opa/speceven/caf/2010/participant-info.asp.

• Don’t forget to include your Legion Family in your event. The American Legion and Sons of The American Legion are a great help, and getting them involved helps build a strong Family relationship.

• Remember to promote your event. Send information to your local newspaper, write a letter to the editor, and invite local reporters and news stations to your event.

• A great and simple way to raise funds for NVCAF is to incorporate it into your poppy program. Check with your department VA&R chairman or Poppy chairman for your department’s approved dates to distribute poppies (i.e., Memorial Day, Veterans Day, etc.). Select a small group of volunteers who are willing to distribute poppies one day just for the NVCAF. Select a good spot—Target, Walmart, local market, liquor store or anywhere in your community that has lots of traffic. Be sure to get approval from the location before you go so your hard work will be successful. Bring materials with you that reference NVCAF and what it does for participants.

• Does your local veterans hospital or veterans home have a Creative Arts Festival? If not, it’s a great opportunity for your unit members to work with your local VA hospital or home to get one started. Attached instructions How to Facilitate a Local Veterans Creative Arts Festival will help you get started. Work with your hospital representative to see how you can get this project started. If you don’t know who your representative is, check with your department VA&R chairman. This year, a grant fund has been set up to help your local VA hospital or VA home with its Creative Arts Festival and/or workshop. The fund is also available for hospitals that want to start a new local Creative Arts Festival or Creative Arts Workshop. You can find the application for the mini-grant www.ALAforVeterans.org.

• Once you get your local Creative Arts Festival started, or if you have one in your area, why not host a mini Creative Arts Festival at your post home or at a facility at your hospital/home? Your Unit can supply art supplies, volunteers and refreshments. Be sure to work with the recreational therapist at your local hospital/home, and don’t forget that you can use poppy funds for this event.

• Don’t forget to promote your local Creative Arts Festival to all veterans in your area (i.e., letter to the editor, flyers in local posts, your VA hospital/home—just to name a few).
• Did you know that awards are presented to departments, Units and individuals that donate money to NVCAF? Awards are presented for Bronze ($1,000 to $2,499), Silver ($2,500 to $4,999), and Gold ($5,000 to $14,999) by close of books 2017. Wouldn't it be exciting for your unit to receive this amazing award that will be presented during the 2017 National Convention in Reno?

• As unit chairman, you can create a special awards program for your members' participation in the Creative Arts program. Your awards program night include awards for different levels of contributions or the most creative fundraiser.

• The National Veterans Creative Arts Festival is a week of learning, exploring fellowship and celebration of the healing power of the arts. Each dollar you raise helps a veteran in his or her quest for healing. Be creative in your fundraising and please pass on your success and struggles to your department VA&R chairman with a cc to your division chairman.
